MOB

- Assemble at International Airport for your departure flights to - Narita, Tokyo.

DAY 2 ARRIVE NARITA > TOKYO > MOUNT FUJI

Lunch, Dinner

- Upon arrival, transfer to Tokyo city.
- Visit Asakusa Kannon Temple – the oldest and most impressive temple in Tokyo.
- Nakamise-dori, Japan's oldest shopping street, dates back to the 17th century. Come and experience the nostalgic charm of Tokyo as it was yesterday. Most shops along this street are family-run businesses passed down through generations, selling souvenirs, delicious street food, and incredibly tempting sweets.
- Shinjuku - one of Tokyo's three major shopping districts, boasting numerous bustling underground markets and vibrant department stores to explore.
- Tonight's dinner is a buffet at the hotel with all-you-can-eat crab.
- Overnight at Fuji Yamanakako SUN PLAZA Hotel or similar.

DAY 3 MOUNT FUJI > LAKE KAWAGUCHI > NAGANO OR TAKAYAMA

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Today journey to Oshino Hakkai is a small village in the Fuji Great Lakes region, and it is also the most beautiful place to view Mount Fuji.
- Popular Instagrammable Spot - Hikawa Clock Shop: The Fujiyama Honmachi Street shopping arcade is famous for its unique scenery, where visitors can enjoy magnificent views of Mount Fuji from the street.
- Oishi Park - located on the north shore of Lake Kawaguchi in Fujikawaguchiko Town, Yamanashi Prefecture, Japan, is famous for its superb views of Mount Fuji and, along with Yagisaki Park on the south shore, is considered one of Lake Kawaguchi's most famous lavender spots, serving as the main venue for the "Kawaguchiko Herb Festival".
- Proceed to Nagano or Takayama.
- Overnight at AMBIENT Amman Hotel or similar.

DAY 4 NAGANO OR TAKAYAMA > GIFU > OGAKI

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Takayama Old Town (Hida Takayama Old Town), located in Gifu Prefecture, is renowned for its Edo-era wooden townhouses and is often called "Little Kyoto of Hida." The areas of Kami-Sannomachi, Kami-Ninnomachi, and Kami-Ichinomachi boast charming streetscapes, famous for their dark wooden lattice windows, rows of old shops, and sake groves (sugitama) ornaments. This is a popular tourist area for experiencing traditional Japanese culture, enjoying Hida beef sushi, and buying sake and handicrafts.
- Shirakawa-go Gassho-zukuri Village is a World Heritage Site, a "Gassho-zukuri Ancient Village" that has preserved over 100 well-maintained Gassho-zukuri buildings, and is still inhabited today. Besides the Gassho-zukuri buildings, there are many tourist attractions, such as the Hirose Onsen, which originates at the foot of the mountain, where you can experience traditional wisdom and skills as well as magnificent natural scenery.
- Overnight at Ogaki Forum Hotel or similar.

DAY 5 OGAKI > KYOTO > OSAKA

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Morning proceed to Kyoto. A special arrangement has been made to visit Kiyomizu Temple in kimono. This UNESCO World Heritage Site boasts over 300 years of history. You will also visit Ninenzaka and Sannenzaka.
- Fushimi Inari Shrine - A shrine dedicated to the god of inari, sake, and prosperity. Featuring dozens of fox statues and a thousand torii gates - the magical, seemingly endless path of thousands of vibrant orange torii gates makes it one of Japan's most popular shrines.
- Later we will travel to Osaka and have free time to shop in Shinsaibashi and Dotonbori.
- Overnight at Osaka Crystal Series Hotel or similar.

DAY 6 OSAKA > NARA > OSAKA

Breakfast, Lunch

- Osaka Castle Park - A popular tourist destination in Osaka, Japan.
- Kuromon Market is a shopping street located in the Minami Ward of central Osaka. The market's name comes from a nearby temple called Enmeiji.
- In the afternoon, visit Nara Deer Park and experience feeding the deer with crackers, a classic activity on a Nara tour. Visitors can buy special "deer crackers" in the park to feed these wild sika deer, who are considered messengers of the gods, and they will bow in gratitude.
- Rinku OUTLET is a large shopping center located near Kansai International Airport in Osaka, and is one of the largest outlet malls in western Japan.
- Overnight stay at Izumisano Central Hotel or similar.
