DAY 5 BEIJING > GUBEI (2 HOURS)

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Tiananmen Square – The imperial square outside the main gate of the Forbidden City during the Ming and Qing dynasties, it is also the world's largest city square. View the Monument to the People's Heroes, the Great Hall of the People, the National Museum of China, and the National Opera House. Known as the "Giant Egg," its simple yet grand architectural style resembles a crystal-clear pearl on water, perfect for taking photos.
- Qianmen Antique-Style Commercial Street – To better restore the old Beijing atmosphere, all the renovated buildings here are antique-style. Even the trams are modeled after those from the Republic of China era, and many statues are placed along the streets.
- Beijing Fang – One of the eight wards of Beijing's outer city during the Ming and Qing dynasties. Originally an administrative division of the outer city, it covered the area south of Zhengyangmen, Chongwenmen, and Xuanwumen to Yongdingmen. The name Baizhifang still exists today.
- Dashilan Street – You will be surrounded by a rich atmosphere of traditional Chinese culture. From the exquisite carvings on the ancient buildings to the bustling streets, every aspect of this street is full of history and tradition.
- Gubei Water Village (including one-way electric cart ride) - Backed by the most beautiful and precipitous section of the Simatai Great Wall in China, and nestled beside the Yuanyang Lake Reservoir, it is a rare tourist resort combining mountains, water, and town in the suburbs of Beijing. The ancient town is built along the water, exuding the grandeur of northern ancient towns while also incorporating many features of southern water towns. Visitors can also enjoy hot springs and sample local cuisine, making it a great choice for leisure and vacation in the Beijing suburbs. Enjoy the water and light show and night view in the evening.
- Overnight at Gubei Military Camp Inn or similar.

DAY 6 GUBEI > TANGSHAN (3 HOURS)
