DAY 4 BUSAN

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Visit Gamcheon Culture Village (search for the prince's trail). Originally an old mountain residential area in Busan, the village has been transformed by urban regeneration projects. Colorful paintings and cute landscaping have added an artistic touch to the village. The adorable crayon-colored terraced houses and maze-like alleys make it feel like a fairy tale world, making it a famous tourist attraction.
- Shirai Shallow Beach Cultural Village is a must-visit for art lovers. Along the coastal trails and through the village's alleyways, murals and artworks can be found everywhere.
- Songdo Skywalk - Connects the mainland to Turtle Island, located east of Songdo Beach. Some sections are specially equipped with transparent reinforced glass, giving people the thrill of walking on the sea.
- Seomyeon Pedestrian Street - Busan's busiest commercial, shopping, and food hub, offering a wide variety of shopping options.
- Overnight at Busan GNB Hotel or similar.

DAY 5 BUSAN

Breakfast, Lunch

- Visit the Korean Ginseng Sales Bureau and the Korean Fashion Cosmetics Duty-Free Shop. Also visit a Korean Liver Health Supplement Specialty Store.
- Yongdusan Park (excluding the tower) is a park located on Yongdusan Mountain in Jung-gu, Busan, South Korea, and is one of Busan's tourist attractions.
- BIFF Plaza + International Market (experience culture and food).
- Jagalchi Seafood Market is the largest seafood market in South Korea. You can immerse yourself in the lively pace of life of local fishermen, personally select fresh seafood, and taste it on the spot.
- Later you can freely shop in the Nampo-dong shopping street.
- Overnight at Busan GNB Hotel or similar.

DAY 6 BUSAN > TRANSIT > HOME

Breakfast, MOB

- After breakfast, free shopping at the Local Products Grocery Shop.
