DAY 1 DEPARTURE > KUNMING

MOB

- Assemble at International Airport for depart to Yunan - Kunming. (Reference Flight OD666 / 22:40-02:00+1)
- Upon arrival transfer to Hotel for rest.
- Overnight at Days Inn Wyndham Hotels or similar.

DAY 2 KUNMING > YUANMOU (2.5 HOURS)

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Yuanmou Man Museum (closed Mondays, replaced by Phoenix Lake Park): This museum houses a wealth of artifacts, pictures, and objects, showcasing Yuanmou's important discoveries and research achievements in the scientific study of human origins.
- Yuanmou Earth Forest (including one-way electric cart ride): A famous Quaternary geological wonder, renowned for its uniquely shaped earth pillars and desolate, fantastical planetary-like landscape.
- Overnight at the Yuanmou Haofeng Wyndham Hotel or similar.

DAY 3 YUANMOU > DALI (3.5 HOURS)

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- After breakfast, proceed to Dali visit to LiXiangBang (Includes electric cart ride, exquisite afternoon tea, experience of ethnic costume, professional photographer's travel photo-shoot, and 6 professionally retouched digital photos per person), which is home to more than a dozen hotels. It is known as the Chinese version of Santorini and is a unique resort town in Dali. The exterior walls are mainly white in European architectural style, making it a favorite for checking in and taking photos. Also enjoy afternoon tea here.
- Jinshuo Island (including ferry ride, Longgong Cave, and scheduled water lily dance performance) is the largest and only island in Erhai Lake that has been inhabited for generations. The island is named for its shape, which resembles a weaving shuttle; legend has it that it was formed from a golden shuttle dropped by a celestial fairy.
- Overnight at Lanlinge Hotel or similar.

DAY 4 DALI > MANGSHI (4.5 HOURS)

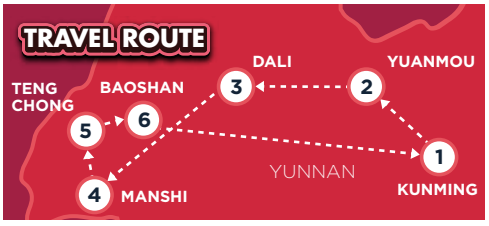

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Today, we will drive to Mangshi to visit the Meng Huan Golden Pagoda – a Buddhist pagoda located in Mangshi, Dehong Dai and Jingpo Autonomous Prefecture. It is also the tallest Theravada Buddhist pagoda in China.
- Meng Huan Silver Pagoda – a tranquil place like a mirror to the sky. The Silver Pagoda is slightly smaller in scale than the Golden Pagoda, but because the mountain it sits on is about 20 meters higher, visually the two pagodas are of similar height. After its completion, the Silver Pagoda and the Golden Pagoda complemented each other, creating a unique scenic view.
- Mangshi Dai Ancient Town – built to national 4A-level scenic area standards, it deeply explores Dai history and culture, using ancient Dai culture as its guiding principle, architecture as its framework, commerce as its vitality, and intangible cultural heritage as its techniques. Utilizing the natural terrain, it aims to create a world-class ancient Dai cultural experience destination integrating cultural experiences, leisure and vacation, tourism services, and ecological living.
- Overnight at Shengshui Lake Hotel or similar.

DAY 5 MANSHI > TENGCHONG (2 HOURS)

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Tengchong Volcanic Geothermal National Geopark (round-trip electric shuttle bus included): One of my country's four major volcanic clusters and three major geothermal areas, it's the best destination for exploring volcanic landforms.
- Ginkgo Village (round-trip electric shuttle bus included): Located in northern Tengchong County, Yunnan Province, the village is filled with ginkgo trees of all sizes, both in front of and behind the houses. In autumn, the village is enveloped in a golden glow from the tall ginkgo trees, with fallen leaves carpeting the ground like a golden carpet – a truly breathtaking sight.
- Overnight at Tengchong Wanda Meihua Hotel or similar.

DAY 6 TENGCHONG

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Rehai Scenic Area (including round-trip electric cart + Big Boiling Pot): The volcanoes here are mainly concentrated in the Rehai area. As the name suggests, it's a hot spring resort and one of the largest hot spring areas in China.
- Heshun Ancient Town (including round-trip electric cart): Founded in the Ming Dynasty, it has a history of over 600 years. Originally named "Heshun" because a small river meanders through it, it was later renamed "Heshun" by scholars, meaning "harmony between officials and people." It was once a vital town for caravan trade in Yunnan and even nationwide, and a crucial stop on the ancient Southwest Silk Road.
- Simola Wa Village (electric cart + experience making "rice cakes"): A traditional Chinese village and a characteristic village of a Chinese ethnic minority, with a history of over 500 years. In the Wa language, it's called "Simola," meaning "a happy place." Today, it retains complete village gates, totems, drinking songs, and traditional Wa customs such as the "Daniu Cong" (a traditional Wa custom). Experience the intangible cultural heritage of traditional papermaking: Ancient Papermaking Techniques.
- Overnight at Tengchong Wanda Meihua Hotel or similar.

DAY 7 TENGCHONG > BAOSHAN (2.5 HOURS) > KUNMING (4 HOURS)

Breakfast, Dinner

- This morning, travel by car to Baoshan, passing by the Longjiang Bridge - Asia's longest steel box girder suspension bridge.
- Take a high-speed train from Baoshan to Kunming (luggage not on the train).
- Free for shopping at Jinma Biji Square and Nanping Pedestrian Street (Nanqiang Street).
- Overnight at Hilton Kunming Hotel or similar.

DAY 8 KUNMING > PENANG

Breakfast, Lunch

- Dounan Flower Market (Asia's largest cut flower market)
- Daguanlou Park, free shopping on Ming Old Street, and the popular photo spot, Duiyuelou.
- After the tour, transfer to the airport for your flight back home.

DAY 9 ARRIVAL HOME

- Arrive home with sweet memories.
