DAY 2 ARRIVE NARITA > NASU

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Upon arrival transfer, we will visit Narita Shinshoji Temple.
- Continue proceed to the Momiji Bridge - a 320-meter-long suspension bridge with stunning scenery in every season. As a suspension bridge without a bridge, it is the largest in Japan. From the bridge, you can enjoy panoramic views of the majestic and beautiful Shiobara Valley. During the autumn foliage season, the vibrant reflections of the mountains in the lake create a breathtaking scene.
- Nasu Onsen - Nasu-dake is a delightful, old-fashioned, and widely distributed hot spring resort located on the slopes of Mount Nasu, a highland region also known as the Nasu Highlands.
- Overnight at New Shiobara Hotel or similar.

DAY 3 NASU > FUKUSHIMA > OUCHI-JUKU > TENDO

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Today we're heading to Ashimaki-onsen Station, a station on the Aizu Railway's Aizu Line located in Aizu-Wakamatsu City, Fukushima Prefecture, Japan. Famous for its popular "Cat Stationmaster," it's a beloved tourist attraction. We'll experience riding the Aizu Railway's shovel-shaped train (11:50~12:35) to Ouchi-juku.
- Visit the Aizu Kitakata Ramen Restaurant - their ramen uses rather thick, curly noodles that are chewy and elastic. It's made with a blend of two high-quality wheat flours and water from the Tsugamine Creek, selected as one of the "100 Famous Waters".
- Stay overnight at Tendo Eiya or Yamagata International Hotel.

- Overnight at Kinugawa Gyeon Hotel or similar.

DAY 6 KINUGAWA > TOKYO > NARITA

Breakfast, Lunch

- Today we return to Tokyo and visit Meiji Shrine, located in Shibuya Ward, a popular shrine dedicated to Emperor Meiji and Empress Shōken. It is renowned for its solemn wooden torii gate, beautiful scenery throughout the four seasons (ginkgo leaves in autumn, irises in early summer), and high-energy attractions (such as the Kiyomasa Well), making it the most visited shrine during the New Year.
- We will also visit Miyashita Park, a busy intersection, and the Hachiko statue – built to commemorate a dog named Hachiko. Hachiko would pick up and drop off his owner at work every day. One day, his owner tragically passed away, but Hachiko continued to wait for him at the station every day, rain or shine. This story touched the hearts of people across the country, and in April 1934, a bronze statue of Hachiko was erected in front of Shibuya Station.
