DAY 1 DEPARTURE > FUKUOKA

MOB

- Assemble at Airport for your departure flight to Kyushu - Fukuoka.

DAY 2 FUKUOKA > HITA (2 HOURS) > BEPPU (0.5 HOUR)

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Upon arrival, experience rafting on the Yanagawa River this morning - it has developed into a prosperous "castle town" and is famous for being the hometown of the poet Kitahara Hakushu. Cruises are a famous feature here. Take a Donko boat and cruise along the rivers that crisscross the city to experience the unique style of the water town.
- Kinrin Lake - famous for its unique natural landscape and ever-changing lake water. The lake water here is a mixture of spring water and hot spring water, which presents completely different scenery as the seasons change and the passage of time, making each visit like a new experience.
- Yufuin Flower Village – a theme park modeled after the Cotswolds town in England, which became famous as a filming location for the movie "Harry Potter", has a unique atmosphere that is as captivating as stepping into a fairy tale world.
- Overnight at Kame-no-i Hotel in Beppu or similar.

DAY 3 BEPPU > YUFU (1 HOUR) > ASO (1 HOUR)

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Beppu Hell, also known as Beppu Hell Seven Hot Springs, is located in the areas of Beppu. The name comes from the mysterious and changeable hot springs here. The boiling water vapor rises violently from the surface, so much so that the ancients hated its existence.
- Takachiho Gorge is a columnar jointed gorge formed by the rapid cooling of ancient lava flows. Boating through the gorge, one can gaze up at the Manai Falls cascading 17 meters down, experiencing breathtaking natural beauty.
- Yonezuka-Mount Aso's "Kusasenri no Hama" is a vast, verdant grassland located on the northern slope of Eboshi-dake, one of the five peaks of Mount Aso. Its idyllic scenery and atmosphere have been celebrated by numerous waka poets and included in textbooks since ancient times. The name Aso immediately evokes images of this Kusasenri Hama.
- Kumamoto Shimodori Arcade is the largest shopping street in Kumamoto Prefecture, boasting an excellent shopping environment and a wide variety of entertainment and dining options. People from all over Kumamoto gather here to enjoy themselves.
- Overnight at Kumamoto ART Hotel or similar.

DAY 4 ASO > KUMAMOTO (1.5 HOURS) > SHIMABARA (0.5 HOUR FERRY) > NAGASAKI (1.5 HOURS)

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Kumamoto Castle - also known as Ginkgo Castle after Toyotomi Hideyoshi completed the Kyushu conquest, the then lord of the castle, Kyuki, was transferred to Chikugo Province.
- Sakurababa-Shiro-en features the "Kumamoto Castle Museum Yuyuza," which allows visitors to experience and feel the history of Kumamoto Castle using virtual technology. Within a recreated Edo-era castle town, there's also "Sakura Koji," a food and beverage stall featuring 23 shops selling local Kumamoto specialties and food. It's a comprehensive tourist information center with resident tour guides.
- Take the Ocean Heart high-speed cruise across the Ariake Sea to Shimabara, while enjoying the sea scenery, if you are lucky, you can also see flocks of seagulls flying.
- Spectacle Bridge is one of the "Three Famous Bridges in Japan", and it is said that the "Nijue Bridge" of the Imperial Palace was built with reference to it. It is named because the two circles formed by the bridge piers and the reflection of the river surface look like glasses.
- Nagasaki Peace Park was built to commemorate the atomic bomb explosion on August 9, 1945, always reminding the world of the horror of war and expressing the desire for peace.
- Overnight at Hotel Monterey Nagasaki Hotel or similar.

DAY 5 NAGASAKI > TAKEO (1 HOUR) > FUKUOKA (1.5 HOURS)

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

- Mifuneyama Land is located at the foot of Mifuneyama in Takeo City. The park is full of various flowers and plants and covers an area of more than 500,000 square meters. It was built by accepting the legacy of the past feudal lord. Drive back to Fukuoka to visit Nakasu District.
- Yutoku Inari Shrine is one of Japan's three major Inari shrines, popular with those praying for business prosperity, family happiness, bountiful fish harvests, and traffic safety. The shrine's symbol is its rows of red torii gates. Legend has it that red symbolizes a warm spring favorable for farming, hope, and vitality. The custom of offering red torii gates is said to have originated in the Edo period as a form of prayer and fulfillment of vows.
- Takeo Onsen Library, operated by Tsutaya Bookstore and Starbucks, boasts a stylish design that blends the warmth of wood with modern minimalism. Upon entering, you're enveloped in the aroma of books and coffee—a truly wonderful atmosphere.
- Shimasu Premium Outlet is the outlet with the most stores in Kyushu. From international European and American brands to Japanese fashion brands, you can find them all. Tenjin Commercial Street is the busiest street in Kyushu. The streets of Tenjin are lined with many well-known brand buildings, old department stores, and various drugstores. There is also a Tenjin underground street with many brands. You can spend a whole day shopping in this fashionable gathering place for young people in Fukuoka.
- Overnight at Fukuoka Quintessa Hotel or similar.
