📍 Yangtianwo Square

Located in the urban area of Dujiangyan, it is famous for its adorable giant panda sculpture and is a popular photo spot for visitors. The square blends urban leisure with panda culture, allowing visitors to experience Chengdu's unique laid-back atmosphere and charming appeal up close.

📍 Hui Yuan Temple

Located at the foot of Yala Snow Mountain, it is the only Gelupai temple built by the Qing dynasty. The giant gold-plated plaque of the Hui Yuan Temple, given by Yongzheng Emperor, hangs in the middle of the temple gate.

📍 Wolong National Nature Reserve

The primary mission of Wolong is the conservation of the giant panda, an endangered species native to China. It serves as a crucial habitat for pandas to live, breed, and thrive in a natural environment.

📍 Manhua Manor

The manor has large flower fields and flower beds, planted with a variety of flowers and plants. Regardless of the spring, summer, autumn and winter, can enjoy the flowers of different seasons
