[The Sky Grassland] is the soul of Nalati. Snow mountains, forests, streams, grasslands and flower seas come together like a living painting. As you walk through it, cattle, sheep and horses graze freely, creating a fairytale forest atmosphere. It is not only breathtaking to see but also a paradise for photography. Drive along [Panlong Valley Road], where beauty is never a straight line. With every turn of the steering wheel, you plunge into spruce forests filled with wind and the scent of grass. Each bend reveals a new view and with fewer visitors, every photo stays clean and cinematic. Explore the [River Valley Grassland], like stepping into a Miyazaki world. D7 | Yining (98KM,1.5HR) → Khorgos Port (114KM,1.5HR) → Sayram Lake

Meals: B, L, D

After breakfast, travel toward Sayram Lake, with a stop at [Khorgos Port]. This frontier border town sits on the boundary between China and Kazakhstan, offering a glimpse into cross border trade and rich multicultural life. Visit the China Culture Exhibition Hall, learn about the port and national border, and take photos at the boundary markers. If time allows, stop by the People's Café or browse the China Kazakhstan duty free zone. In the afternoon, enter the [dreamlike blue world of Sayram Lake Scenic Area, renowned as "a sight not to be missed in a lifetime"]. The moment you reach the lakeshore, the impact is overwhelming. Snow capped mountains stretch endlessly into the distance, seamlessly meeting the jewel blue waters, as sky and earth merge into one. In the afternoon, head to Huocheng and meet purple romance once again at the [Lavender Farms]. Miss it now and you wait another year. Often called "China's Provence", the area shares similar latitude, climate and soil with Provence in France. At sunset, the lavender fields glow even more beautifully.
