SHAWAN ANCIENT TOWN

余荫山房

YUYIN SHANFANG

One of the Four Great Gardens of Guangdong during the Qing Dynasty, it is renowned for its delicate scale and ingenious layout. Pavilions, towers, ponds, and rockeries are artfully integrated throughout the garden, creating a richly layered landscape within a space of less than two acres. It fully embodies the artistic essence of Lingnan garden design

Every step unveils a different season

Through dual-tone glass, green leaves transform into red maples, resembling the fragrant mountains of late autumn. A single window captures the beauty of the changing seasons

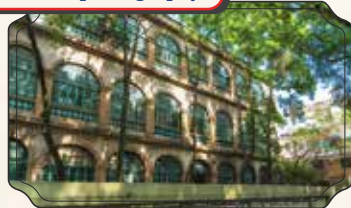

沙面岛

SHAMIAN ISLAND

In Guangzhou, hidden away a century-old island, surrounded by water on three sides, the "International Architecture Expo Group" favored by time. This place is very similar to Shanghai's Bund, but less noisy and more tranquil

A paradise for light and shadow photography!
